Robert C. Bosack, DDS

Dr. Robert Bosack was born and raised on the south side of Chicago and maintains his practice in this area. He graduated from the University of Notre Dame in 1974 and received his DDS from Loyola University School of Dentistry, magna cum laude. He received his advanced training at the Cook County Hospital, where he gained vast surgical experience. He has been practicing the full scope of oral and maxillofacial surgery since 1982, with current emphasis on dental implant technology.

Dr. Bosack is a diplomate of the American Board of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery, and currently serves on Examination Committee for that board. He is committed to maintaining long term relationships with area dentists and physicians. With over 34 years of experience in this community, the number of satisfied patients is ever-expanding. He is currently on staff at Advocate Christ Medical Center and Palos Community Hospital. He is a member in good standing in all pertinent organizations at the city, state and national levels.

In addition to his full-time private practice, Dr. Bosack is a Clinical Assistant Professor at the University of Illinois College of Dentistry. He lectures to his peers at local, state and national levels on topics related to surgery, anesthesia and medicine. He is a licensed provider of continuing education in the State of Illinois, and also maintains sponsorship to provide continuing education by the Academy of General Dentistry. He has recently completed a textbook entitled Anesthesia Complications in the Dental Office, published by Wiley Blackwell in 2015.
